5/10/18	[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] meet with SGS & LB	[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] expressed fear and concern regarding "the [REDACTED]" that was happening in Red Square. They felt that there would be antisemitic action and were quite concerned. They said they had tried to reach out to the [REDACTED] student group, but were unsuccessful. They felt that at least one of the women in this group was belligerent, and another one started yelling at [REDACTED]. This background has made them very nervous about the protest where a fake Wall was set up to represent the [REDACTED]. SGS and LB reached out to Eric Alexander, who they had also talked with, and he joined the conversation. Eric suggested that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] may want to set up their own table to hand out their own literature about their point of view. The conversation ended on a positive note with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] indicated that if they needed to, they would follow up with Eric and/or the EO Office.
